Friday 21st October

10:30-12:15 Bodies Between the Public and the Private 1:30-3:00 Bodies as Politics, Bodies as Nation
3:15-4:45 Bodies Ordered: Epistemology, Language, and Science

Saturday 22nd October

10:00-11:30 Bodies Marking Deviance, Disgust, and Protest
11:45-1:15 Bodies Apart: Identification and Exclusion

Keynote Address

“Blood Will Out: Kinship, the Body, and Popular Medicine, 1750-1860”
Professor Mary Fissell, Johns Hopkins University
Thursday 20th October
Busch 100, 4 pm

Reception to follow in Busch 18

Pre-Registration and Full Program Online at: history.artsci.wustl.edu/GHA/Conference

Generously Co-Sponsored by:
The Center for the Humanities
International and Area Studies
Germanic Languages & Literatures
Religious Studies
Women, Gender, & Sexuality Studies
Art History & Archaeology

Sponsored by Department of History Colloquium Series